

Amundsen HS Food Health Expo - Student voices!

Creative exhibits: dramatizations, music, poetry, video, visual displays, science experiments, prizes

Hear our students' ideas for improving food health in their lives

Visit our student vegetable garden (south wall of the school)

When: June 17th, 2015 @ 9:30 am

Where:

Amundsen High School - GYM
5110 N Damen Ave
Chicago, IL 60625

What: Inspired by the Food Patriots documentary film and meeting with film director Jeff Spitz, our students have been working with their science teachers to further explore the food health topic. They prepared unique and creative projects to explain their own ideas about improving food health in their lives.
